

June 1 Is Deadline For Paying 1965's Tax Bills

The 1965 tax bills are out and town collectors will be kept busy up to June 1 when collection of taxes becomes the job of the county treasurer.

June 1 is the deadline for payment of personal property taxes and the first installment on real estate taxes.

Last year and the previous year there was considerable confusion relative to assessments and as a consequence tax bills were late, the result was that payment dates were extended but there is no respite this year. Penalties are in force after June 1. Second installment on real estate is due Sept. 1.

Taxes as a whole are up this year. The county tax is up 12 cents and three mills and the state legislature which gave county rates a boost also raised the transportation tax for schools from 2 to 8 cents, which is a 6-cent gain, and a 5-cent levy was made to provide matching funds for federal aid in the county.

What rate applies to a piece of property depends upon its location. School levies vary from district to district and, of course, if one lives within a city or village there is that tax to pay which does not apply to those living in unincorporated areas.

In New Lenox township, for example, there are residents there whose properties have been annexed to the City of Joliet so they pay the City of Joliet tax rate, the Joliet Grade School (Dist. 86) rate, and the Joliet Township High School (Dist. 204) rate. The City of Joliet rate is 951 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation; the village of New Lenox rate is 747 cents, a difference of 20 cents and four mills.

Persons owning property within the village of New Lenox will have a tax rate of $4.846 as compared with $4.471 in 1964. The New Lenox village rate in 1964 was .762 cents so the rate this year is down a cent and a half.

In Frankfort township there are five school districts, two fire districts, a park district (Mokena) and two villages. The total 1965 rate for property within the village of Mokena is $4.976 as compared to $4.446 for 1964; in the village of Frankfort the total 1965 rate is $4.93 as compared to $4.581 in 1964. The 1965 Village rates are: Mokena .481 for 1964 and .647 for 1965; Frankfort .658 for 1964 and .666 for 1965.

The school rates in New Lenox township are: Lincoln-Way High School (Dist. 210), $1.807 for 1965, $1.655 for 1964; Joliet High School, $1.353 for 1965 $1.365 for 1964; Grade District 122, $1.48 for 1965, $1.356 for 1964; Grade Dist. 81, $1.611 for 1965, $1.591 for 1964; Joliet Grade Dist. 86, $1.664 for 1965, $1.654 for 1964.

The school rates in Frankfort township: (Lincoln-Way High school is the same as stated above) Dist. 157-C (Frankfort) $1.599 for 1965 and $1.584 for 1964; Dist. 159 (Mokena) $1.524 for 1965 and $1.518 for 1964; Dist. 56-C (Ann Rutledge) $1.821 for 1965 and $1.817 for 1964; Dist. 161 (Arbury Hills) $1.635 for 1965 and $1.535 for 1964.

Green Garden township is in a community unit school district, No. 207-U. In 1964 the school tax was $2.416 and for 1965 it is $2.526.

In Homer township there is one high school district (Lockport No. 205) and three grade school districts. The high school rate in 1965 was $1.516 and in 1964 it was $1.175; Grade Dist. 33-C, $1.551 in 1965, and $1.51 in 1964; Dist. 92, $1.662 in 1965 and $1.49 in 1964; a piece of Homer is in New Lenox District 122 where the current rate is $1.48.

Homer has two fire districts, Homer Dist. is 15 cents for 1965 a mill less than in 1964; NW Homer has the same rate for the two years, 10 cents. Persons who own property in the Bonnie Brae San, District will have a .357 rate for 1965 which is 10 cents and six mills less than 1964, while property owners in Lockport Heights San, District will pay 30 cents and two mills more this year. The 1965 rate is .502 cents.

New Lenox has a township library tax that is unchanged. It is .018 cents per $100 valuation. The fire protection district tax in New Lenox for 1965 is 7 1/2 cents, in 1964 it was .066 cents. The Frankfort fire district rate for 1965 is .074 as compared to .069 for 1964; Mokena fire district, up two cents from eight to 10.

The county rate for 1965 is .362 for 1965 as compared to .239 for 1964. The forest preserve rate is .007 as compared to .01 in 1964. Town rates vary but there is little difference in the two years. Frankfort town rate is .068 for 1965 as compared to .064 in 1964 and the figure for poor relief for 1965 is .038 which is a half-cent less. Road and bridge is up five cents from .259 to .309 cents.

In New Lenox township the town rate this year is .048 or two mills less; poor relief is .034, down a mill; road and bridge is down one cent and one mill from .236 in 1964 to .225 currently.

Green Garden's town rate is .1444, down three mills; poor relief is the same .018 and road and bridge is the same .08 cents. Green Garden has a special road tax that is the same in 1965 as 1964, .134 cents. Some residents reside in the Manhattan fire district where the tax is .067, up three mills; some reside in the Frankfort fire district and some live outside of both.

In Homer the town tax is .126 which is three mills higher; poor relief is .021 as compared to .008 in 1964; road and bridge is the same, 33 cents.

Busy On Budget For Frankfort

The Frankfort village board devoted most of its session Monday night to a discussion of the appropriation ordinance. Chairmen of the various committees and departments discussed their needs dollarwise and when the council meets again in two weeks the trustees will have agreed on final figures and the measure put up for passage.

The appropriations are always larger than what officials expect to be able to spend. Under law expenditures cannot be made unless there are appropriations for them. So in the event that some unforeseen circumstance should make money available for items on the hope list, the appropriations are drawn accordingly.

It is the tax levy ordinance that is realistic, it was pointed out.

The board did take time, however, as it had agreed at its last meeting, to consider a plat of a proposed subdivision proffered by Attorney Albert H. Krusemark. It is his own property and the piece involved contains 10 lots and lies along Evergreen Drive. The plat was given approval but at the next meeting of the board Krusemark is to submit plans for sewer extensions (the water is already in) and possibly the location of additional fire hydrants, sidewalks and other requirements of the subdivision code.

He believed it to be in the village but examination Monday of maps revealed it was just outside the boundaries. Krusemark will take immediate steps, he said, to correct this situation and annex the property.

The trustees also suggested that in the near future they would appreciate a general plan of what he has in mind for his other property to the east of the village. The board said it would like to have some of the area for park purposes and Krusemark indicated that he has been considering such a move.

William Weber, 516 Hackberry, appeared before the board to complain about low water pressure at his home and two neighboring residences. Trustees John Topp, head of the water committee, was to make a check of the situation Tuesday.

At a special meeting of the board last week Village Clerk Walter Pfaff was given a new contract covering the multitude of tasks he performs for $5,000 a year and Victor Eisenbrandt was given a raise of $25 a month.

W. L. Haakinson was hired on a parttime basis to learn the operation of the water system and the sewage treatment plant. He is to receive $3 an hour.

The board also entered into a contract with Kankakee Truck & Equipment Co. for the body and cinder spreader for the new truck. The snowplow was had from R. H. Lyons Co. The entire package comes to approximately $7,500, according to Trustee Lynn Kohlman who arranged for the purchase, which is some $700 under the estimates. The village is buying the equipment on the installment plan, as permitted thru recent legislation.

Frankfort Band Gets Rating Of Excellent

An Excellent rating was won by the Frankfort Grade School band at the annual state contest last Saturday (April 30) at Peotone.

Sixty members of the Frankfort concert band participated in the contest.

"They received an Excellent rating, just one point away from First Division and that's tough to take," said Perry Friedman, the director. "But it happens and the kids will have to work just that much harder next year."

Frankfort also had pupils in the solo and ensemble contests.

Soloists who received First Division ratings were:

Jenifer Otto, oboe; Cindy Clark, clarinet; Dianne Hossbach, alto sax, and Marvin Kent, baritone.

Second Division ratings were won by Gail Pomykala, Lori Woodman and Marilyn Bormet, alto sax; Geri Weichbrodt, flute; Mark Hull, trombone, and Dan Hecht, tuba.

Gayle Pomykala and Dianne Hossbach received a first on their saxophone duet and Marilyn Bormet and Lori Woodman took second in their saxophone duet.

Nation Deserves Their Best, State Sen. Simon Tells Students Of L-W

"...to you from failing hands We throw the torch, Be yours to hold it high; If ye break faith with us who die

We shall not sleep, Though poppies grow in Flanders fields..." (John McCrae's In Flanders Fields)

State Senator Paul Simon, principal speaker at the annual Loyalty Day ceremonies held Monday in the Lincoln - Way High School auditorium, made no reference to the poem penned by John McCrae in the World War I but the excerpt quoted here could be used to sum up his address.

We all owe a duty and responsibility to our country, Simon told the students. Thru such devotion Americans have written many brilliant pages in history... Lexington ... Yorktown ... Gettysburg ... Belleau Woods ... the Argonne ... Normandy ...

Guadacanal ... Okinawa ... Korea ... Viet Nam ... are some of the names to stir memories.

Each of the generations of the past has done its best to meet its responsibilities, Simon said, and the present and the future generations must face up too and he hopes will do a better job.

Capt. Robert Georgantas, head of Joliet District No. 5, State Police, spoke briefly on the responsibility of good citizens to evoke respect for law by respecting it themselves.

They Loyalty Day program was sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars posts of New Lenox and Mokena with Harold Dailey, of New Lenox, as general chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartung, whose son Thomas, a Lincoln - Way graduate who was killed in the Viet Nam fighting, were special guests at the assembly as was the family of the late Herman Lange. A 28-year veteran of the Coast Guard, he was an original member of the custodial staff at Lincoln-Way. After his death numerous students and faculty members made contributions to a memorial fund in his name.

Out of this fund has been purchased a Memorial Plaque which was dedicated at the program Monday which will be used to carry the names of dedicated school personnel after death.

The Mokena post of the VFW presented a flag to the school which has flown over the nation's capitol and State Senator Simon, of downstate Troy, a newspaperman and author, gave the school an autographed copy of his book on Abraham Lincoln. The school library contains many books on Lincoln,

Dedication Of Mokena's New Lutheran Church Is Scheduled For May 15

The new Immanuel Lutheran Church building on La Porte Road near Schoolhouse road in Mokena will be dedicated on Sunday May 15. Four services will be conducted at 8 and 10:30 a.m. and at 3 and 7:30 p.m. Between services members of the building committee will conduct tours of the new facility.

At the two morning services the Rev. Walter J. Geffert of Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich., will preach the sermon. The Rev. Mr. Geffert was pastor of Immanuel from 1932 to 1943. The Rev. Dr. A. J. Bueltmann, pastor of Immanuel will serve as liturgist and conduct the dedication rites. Paul Gilmore and George Hostert will be acolytes. The Junior Choir will sing Gounod's "Praise Ye the Father." Organists will be Mrs. Harry Yunker and Mrs. Mabel Nelson.

At the afternoon service the Rev. Herbert F. Bohlmann of Kankakee will be the preacher. The Rev. Mr. Bohlmann is first vice president of the Northern Illinois District, the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod of which Immanuel congregation is a member. The choir of St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Lemont, under the direction of Ronald Schnell, will sing an anthem. Mrs. Russel Petersen of Joliet will be guest organist.

The Rev. Erwin L. Paul of Forest Park, president of the Northern Illinois District, Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod, will be the speaker at the evening service. The choir of Our Savior Lutheran church, Joliet, Ralph Bertermann, director, will sing. Miss Barbara Ebert will be organist for the service.

The new building has three units, sanctuary, educational unit, and fellowship hall. The sloping terrain permits a one-step entrance into the two level church at both the upper and lower level. The entrance to the sanctuary is on the main level. The educational wing built on two levels includes six classrooms, the administrative office and the pastor's study on the main level. The lower level contains the fellowship hall, and kitchen, two classrooms and the boiler room and rest rooms. Removable partitions in the fellowship hall provide four more classrooms.

Members of the Building Committee are Donald Ambuehl, Raymond Bernard, Robert Geuther, Albert Janer, Melvin Moutrey, Robert Niemann, Walter Welsch and Dr. Bueltmann.

The church is located on La Porte Rd., near Schoolhouse Rd., on 21 acres purchased in 1955. A parsonage was built there in 1959. A wooded grove on the property is used for picnics and outdoor services.

Immanuel congregation was organized by 15 families on Nov. 4, 1850. The first church was built in 1850 and replaced by a second church in 1877. Both these churches were in the country. A third church was built in town in 1916 and served until the present time. A bell which was hung in the second church in 1887 and has called worshippers to service since that time has been moved to the new church and continues its service.

Boy Scouts To Have Mokena Camporee

Boy Scout troops of Thunderbird District, Rainbow Council, will hold a camporee at Mokena Community Park May 13, 14 and 15. It will be known as the "Skip" Smith Camporee, in memory of the veteran Boy Scout leader of Mokena, who died last year.

Lynn Kohlman, of Frankfort, district committeeman, is general chairman of the committee in charge. He said that between 350 and 500 boys are expected to be in camp for the two nights and two days. The Scouts will make camp Friday night and will also spend Saturday night there, going home late Sunday, May 15.

Thunderbird District includes troops from Lockport, Joliet, Troy, the Elwood area, Manhattan, New Lenox, Mokena and Frankfort.

Those in charge of the camporee are keeping their fingers crossed. Several years ago Mokena was the scene of a camporee that was disrupted by a terrific rainstorm. It was almost a cloudburst and Mokena firemen, police and residents turned out as rescuers--using trucks and tractors to bring out the boys. The camp site was covered with rushing water. Many of the boys were given shelter at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall until their parents could take them home.

4 CSHS Students Take 1sts In Science Fair

In addition to the first awards, Sandburg Freshmen Robert Shade and Arvydas Valenta, Juniors Frank Bischoff, Paul Christensen and David Bartkowski, and Senior Dan Bowen received second place awards for their projects. Junior Jim Polaski earned a third place. The Sandburg group of 10 projects had an excellent over-all performance of four firsts, five seconds and one third.

Jones, Phillips, Patrick and Kost will enter their research work in the State Science Exposition which is to be held at the University of Illinois, Urbana, May 6 and 7. Because of a newly established quota system, they will be among the "Top One Thousand" projects in the state who will come to Urbana. The Sandburg science teachers noted that while this will produce stiff competition for Outstanding Awards at the State level, the excellent work done by the four boys should place them near the top in each of their respective categories.

CSHS Students' Art In State Exhibit

Five Carl Sandburg High School students will have pieces shown at the biennial art exhibit in the Illinois State Museum in Springfield, during May and June, according to Martin Suchor, director of the Sandburg Art Department.

Martha Fish, Michelle Schounnot, John D'Asto, and Bob Sislow, will send paintings, and D'Asto and Sislow will also send welded metal sculpture, and a sculpture by Gary Mailhoit, who graduated from Sandburg last year will be sent.

This is the second time this exhibit has been given. Sandburg sent pieces to the first exhibit, and two were sold. One of these was bought by the museum.

The exhibit began the last week of April and will continue to the middle of June.

The public is invited to attend and may buy the paintings, sculptures, and other works of art. It is expected that 50,000 people will pass thru the exhibit to see the art work of high school students from all over Illinois.

The right of every person to own property, to sell or rent it as we please, and to pass it on to our heirs at death is considered to be a basic right by citizens of the United States.

However, titles to land are not absolute, and the land we own may be taken for use by the public in case necessity requires it. The power which is vested in certain bodies to acquire private property for public use is known as the "power of eminent domain," or the "right of condemnation."

Cities and villages, highway commissions, park districts, railroads, airport authorities, and other governmental units and public utilities have been given the power to acquire land from private owners in a coercive fashion, in order that it may be used for an authorized public purpose.

The federal government and the states have the inherent power of eminent domain over property within their boundaries. As to all other government agencies and organizations, the power can be acquired only by "statute," that is, by a written law passed by the legislature. This power is to be used only if the body is in need of land in order to carry out its function.

In every case, the landowner is entitled to receive just compensation for his land, measured by its present fair market value for the highest and best use to which the land can be put.

Generally speaking, if your property or a part of it should fall within an area to be acquired, the condemning body will make an offer to you for your land. If you feel that this offer is insufficient compensation for your land, the condemning body will bring an action in the appropriate court, asking the court to fix a fair price to be paid for the land. You are entitled to a jury trial if you wish. The jury will determine the amount of compensation. Either party may appeal the decision of the trial court to the Appellate and Supreme Courts of Illinois and even to the United States Supreme Court if there is a federal constitutional question involved.

Both the federal and state governments have power, under certain conditions, to obtain immediate possession of the property, leaving the question of compensation for later decision.

Most persons whose property is to be condemned realize that although they will be seriously inconvenienced by this power of eminent domain, their personal interest must give way to the public welfare and the progress of the community, so long as they are fairly compensated for their loss.

("The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret the law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law.)

It is natural that simple faith, in time of bereavement, be reinforced by religious ceremony, and also by social ceremony. Straight answers and full truths about electric heat

(for the people who plan to buy or build this year)

Frank answers about electric heat for those of you who are planning to spend 20 thousand dollars, or more, for a new home that you'll probably live in for the next 10 or 20 years. You owe it to yourself to investigate the many advantages of electric heat.

As a background, you should know there are 8 million people in the United States now living in electrically heated homes. Estimates indicate that this year 27% of homes being built will have electric heat. And, by 1970, over half of all new homes will be heated electrically.

Let's look into the why's and wherefore's.

Just how happily can you live with electric heat?

Properly installed, the comfort and convenience of electric heat far surpasses anything you've ever experienced before.

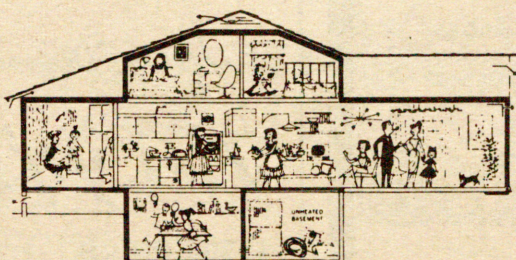

For example: you can step from your shower in the dead of winter and still feel warm. Baby can play on the floor when it's 20 below outside, and not be chilled. You'll even discover yourself cleaning less because electric heat is so dirt-free.

Proper installation assures comfort

Commonwealth Edison will be pleased to consult with your architect or contractor to assure that your electric heating system is designed for your house and installed in accordance with approved engineering standards.

Insulation should also be installed according to recommended standards. When an average six-room house is properly insulated at the time of construction, it will add less than 1% to the total cost. Good insulation will not only repay this investment in less than 4 years by cutting heat loss, but will add greatly to your comfort. And in the summer your home will be cooler, too.

Heavy black line indicates proper insulation.

With electric heat, you can pick the type of heat you want for your new home.

There are 5 basic types of flameless electric heating equipment. Depending on your heating requirements, one system can be used separately, or several may be teamed together.

If space is at a premium, or you want room-by-room temperature control, electric baseboard units or ceiling cable probably will work best.

The electric heat pump either heats or cools, depending on the outside temperature.

Electric central heating systems which use electrically-heated warm air or electrically-heated hot water are available in a variety of types to fit any need. They can be combined with electric central air-conditioning systems to provide year-round comfort.

Electric wall panel heaters provide radiant heat and are best suited for bath and dressing rooms or other areas where space is limited.

What about the cost of electric heat?

All things considered, electric heat will probably cost you somewhat more than gas heat. For example, you should expect to spend about $200 per year for electric heat in a properly insulated six-room house—or about $60 more than gas heat. This does not take into account maintenance and decorating savings with electric heat.

However, electric heat rates have steadily declined. Since 1958, Commonwealth Edison has reduced electric heat rates more than 50% and still further reductions are expected for the future.

Electric Heat is designed to outlast your mortgage (even if it's for 30 years).

After 15 years of operation, during which you would have little, if any, maintenance, look what has happened to your friend with gas heat. During this same 15 years, chances are he will have replaced his furnace (at $300)—paid out another $40 to run the pilot light 15 summers, and paid an additional $225 for furnace cleaning, maintenance, and a big supply of filters.

Electric heat's great for growing families, too.

How many of your friends have outgrown their homes a few short years after they bought them? They plan to add a room or two, and come face-to-face with the old bugaboo—heating the new area.

With gas, frequently they must buy a new and bigger furnace or settle for less-than-satisfactory space heaters. Not so with electric heat. You add as much heating capacity as you need to your new wing almost as simply and inexpensively as adding new wiring.

That's the story!

Anyone about to spend the money a house costs these days ought to know he's spending his money wisely.

We happen to think that your heating dollar will be far better invested in modern electric heat, and we've tried to show you why.

If you'd like more information about electric heat, please call our nearest office.

James P. Hennessy, District Director of the Joliet Regional Port District, spoke at the New Lenox Association of Commerce luncheon Tuesday noon at Bruns restaurant. The subject was the importance of the proposed 10,000 acre reservoir urged to be built on the Kankakee River south of Joliet on undeveloped property of the Joliet arsenal. It was pointed out that the lake would supply the area with water for residential, commercial and recreational use and would be available to the citizens for recreational use. It was also brought out that the project would not require any increase in the local taxes.

The association adopted a resolution to endorse and support the project and to render assistance to the District Board in its efforts to obtain the necessary land and funds.

It's The Fifth Season —Tornado Weather Time

The tornado season -- that meteorologically ill-conceived five month span looping late winter, spring and early summer is now in our midst.

The central or midwest states are a favorite play ground for the truculent twisters and residents are shooting apprehensive glances at any darkening in the sky.

The tornado season begins its early stirrings in February, fattens itself in March and April, then hits alarming peaks in May and June and declines into near dormancy thereafter for about 6 months.

While chances of a tornado striking any given location are slim, its erratic nature makes it a threat to life and property.

Photos of a tornado funnel are often ineffectual. The most awesome characteristic of a tornado is not its visual aspect, but rather the sound like a hundred roaring

Completes Course In Selling

James Vanek of Cooper Show Ford, Frankfort, has just completed a course in retail selling conducted by Ford's Marketing Institute in Chicago.

The course is one of a number offered by Ford Marketing Institutes to benefit Ford and Lincoln-Mercury customers by emphasizing after-purchase service and better customer relations.

Subjects range from management and merchandising courses for dealers and their department managers to selling courses for salesmen. In addition, there are courses for selected Ford Motor Company personnel. Courses are developed from methods used by successful dealerships. Full-time, professional instructors conduct the classes.

airplane engines which accompany the full blown twister. Ominous stickiness in the air and darkness on the horizon, sometimes with a green cast, often spells tornado.

To afford maximum safety for those confronted by these ill winds, the Orland Park Fire Department lists the following safety rules.

1. There is no universal protection against a tornado. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave, or underground excavation which should have an air outlet to help equalize the air pressure.

2. In open country -- move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornado's usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.

3. In a city or town -- seek shelter inside a strongly reinforced building. Stay away from windows.

4. At home -- the southwest corner of the basement offers the greatest safety-- particularly in frame houses, since, most often, tornado's travel in a southwest -- northeast direction. People without basements should seek other adequate shelter. Standing against an inside wall on a lower floor offers some protection, but stand clear of any windows. Doors and windows on the north and east side of the house may be opened to help equalize the air pressure and reduce the damage to the building. If time permits, electricity and fuel lines should be shut off.

5. In school -- if building is of strongly reinforced construction, remain inside near an inside wall on the lower floor. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums with large poorly -- supported roofs. Rural school buildings lacking strongly reinforced construction -- move to a ditch or ravine if a storm shelter is not available.

6. Industrial plants--move to designated area of plant offering the greatest protection.

Above all -- keep calm. It will not help to get excited. People have been seriously injured or killed by running out into streets or by turning back into the path of a tornado.

When a warning is issued, chances of a tornado hitting your home or location are very slight. As a rule, tornado's cover a small zone so that relatively only a few places in a warned area are directly affected. You should know some facts about tornado's though, "just in case".

If you follow the safety rules listed, you will be far better off than those who ignore them.

Remember, your fire department is always ready to help you in an extreme emergency. Make sure you have the phone number memorized or at least readily available.

The number is 349-3121.

Battery, Ignition Trouble No. 1 Cause Of Woe For Nation's Motorists

Tire and carburetor troubles increased sharply for the nation's motorists in 1965, but did not displace battery and electrical failures as the number - one cause of breakdown on the highway, according to the Chicago Motor Club.

The motor club, in reporting on the American Automobile Association's annual study of automobile breakdowns in the nation, revealed that motorists were unable to drive their cars 69,746,000 times last year. This was an increase of eight per cent over 1964, though the number of passenger cars on the road has gone up by only five per cent. Incidentally there were 75,755,000 passenger cars registered in the nation last year.

However, the AAA report points out, the number of motoring troubles was still two million short of all-time high of nearly 72 million reported in 1963 and there are now seven million more cars on the road.

AAA's national study is based on reports from its 780 affiliated motor club offices and branches and the 22,500 automotive service stations under contract to AAA which render emergency service to the association's nine and one-half million members. The reports are then projected nationally to cover all motorists.

There were 10.6 per cent more flat tires than in 1964, bringing the total up to over 13 million and keeping them in the number-two position. In first place were 18.6 million battery and electrical failures which have been on top of the list for a number of years.

AAA said that sharp increases also had been reported in carburetor and ignition failures, with totals of 2.4 million and 7.6 million, respectively. Although the over-all number of brake failures is small, compared with other motoring troubles, they did increase by 12.5 per cent last year.

Tow or wrecker service was required by 11.6 million motorists, four per cent more than in 1964. This, the AAA report theorized, was due in part to extreme weather conditions in several sections of the country which also brought the number of ignition failures up by an above average increase of eight per cent.

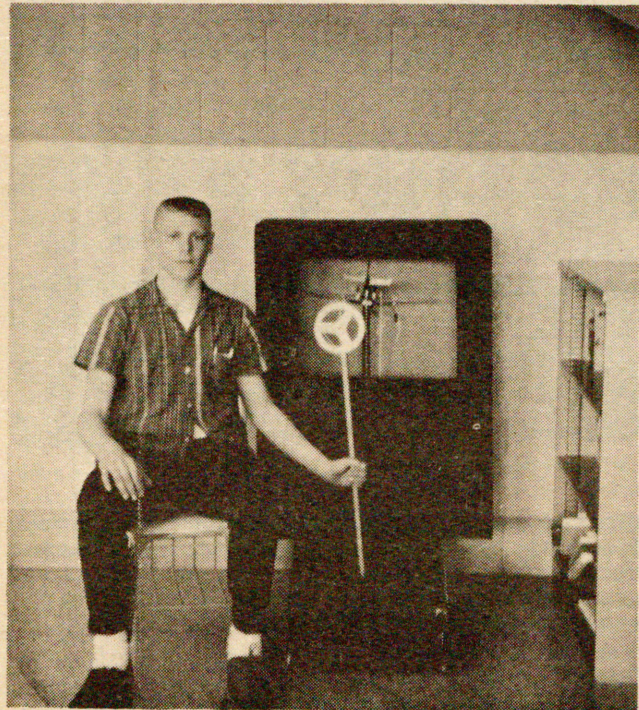

The number of motorists who ran out of gas increased by eight per cent -- a total of 2.7 million -- possibly because there was more travel on the nation's super highways where gasoline facilities are not always readily available, or possible because Americans are becoming more thoughtless.

However, for several years now, motorists have been less forgetful in another way. In 1965, 6.5 per cent fewer locked themselves out of their cars or lost their keys.

Finally, there were more than five million calls for service covering all areas of miscellaneous troubles too diverse to categorize, but these were up 70 per cent.

EXHIBITED AT Orland Grade School science fair last Thursday night was "The Flier" built to demonstrate aero dynamics. The student is Don Snodgrass. The fair was planned by Mrs. Judith Granik and Robert Blain, science instructors in the upper grades. The major emphasis was on the students' understanding of scientific concepts and principals rather than stressing for awards.

Lincoln-Way Blanks Mustangs 7-0 For Third League Win

BY ANDY GARISH

Those see-sawing Knights were back on the win side last Friday night when they blanked the top running Mustangs of Evergreen Park 7 to 0. Lincoln-Way has won every other game in conference play.

The brilliant pitching of Mike Derrig, plus some solid hitting by Ken Kamradt and Tom Tilsy enabled Lincoln-Way to command the situation all the way.

The Knights jumped into a commanding lead in the first inning, coming up with six runs on five hits. As it turned out just one of those runs would have been enough but it is always nice to have insurance.

Kamradt started the business with a single to center. Paul Schubert up next bunted. The Mustang pitcher fielded the ball and fired to second to pick off Kamradt. He was a bit off the mark, however, and the ball sailed into center field, allowing the runner to gain third. Dale Ebert drew a walk, loading the bases and bringing up Tilsy.

Tilsy lined a single into left field, scoring Kamradt and Schubert. Larry Sorensen laid down a nice bunt, Larry was out but Ebert and Tilsy advanced to second and third. They scored moments later when Dave Eden singled.

Keith Schram then blasted out a triple to send Eden across the plate. Derrig then helped his own cause by lashing out a single to bring Schram in.

Lincoln-Way's other tally was scored in the sixth inning when Kamradt tripled to left and scored when the third baseman juggled the ball on the throw-in.

Derrig held the Mustangs to four hits, all singles, striking out 10 batsmen and walking none. It was his second shutout for the season. It was also Lincoln-Way's third win in conference play as opposed to three defeats. In the overall picture the Knights have lost three, won five and there is another game that either rates as a tie or incomplete. It is scheduled to be settled this month.

Mokena Girl Hopes To Become Olympic Runner

Christine Jasinski, a 17 year old Lincoln - Way High School junior, has aspirations of one day competing for the United States in the Olympia Games. This is the goal of Christine, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Jasinski of 11510 West 192nd Street, Mokena.

Christine is a member of Mayor Daley's Youth Foundation Track and Field Team which recently took second place in the 78th Annual U. S. A. Indoor Track and Field Championships. The event, under the auspices of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States, was held at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Chris, as she is known by her friends, has been associated with the Youth Foundation since last August. Along with participating in the nationals at Albuquerque, she has traveled to Indianapolis, Louisville, and Philadelphia as well as competing in Chicago. Chris has numerous medals, ribbons, and three trophies to show as the fruits of her labor.

The low hurdles seem to be most fascinating to Chris and she now can cover the 60 yard distance in 8.3 seconds.

Top Salesmen Of Burros To See Game

The members of Mokena's midget football Burros who sold their quota of candy during Easter will have their expenses paid by the team to the Old Timers football game at Norte Dame stadium Saturday, May 7.

The group is requested to meet at the park at 9:30 a.m. The following boys are eligible; Bill Thomas, Ronnie Thomas, Gerald Thomas, Kenny Fortman, Tommy Collins, Al Behnke, Richard Fronek, Blake Tekotte, Bill Roach, Tim Homerding, Jeff Cronos, Duane Pierson, Randy Boyd, Bob Rust, Rick Wasney, Guy Wasney, Mark Krueger, Toby Krueger and Gregg Becker.

The boys should bring a lunch and change for spending money at the game.

CHRISTINE JASINSKY

onds. She states that this is not very good but her coach, Richard Michalik, feels this is the event in which Chris will excel. Other accomplishments include a time of 26 seconds in the 220 yard run and a 16'10" long jump.

Chris first became interested in the cinder paths when her physical education teacher at Lincoln - Way, Miss Marie Catron, took a group of girls to Hanson Park (Illinois) for track competition. It was here that Coach Michalik discovered her.

Also important to Chris is her academic achievement. She ranks in the upper-quarter of her class and is enrolled in such subjects as English, college prep math, spanish, typing and art. We hope that Chris reaches her goal and one day is the proud owner of one of those coveted gold medals.

hints for Homeowners

BY: RICHARD DELANO
ASSISTANT COOK COUNTY FARM ADVISER IN ORNAMENTAL
& FLORICULTURE

The latest trend in landscaping with trees is to use multi-purpose varieties.

No group of trees fills this order better than fruit trees. They give bloom in spring, shade in summer, and limited amounts of fruit in fall. The amounts of fruit is only limited by the faithfulness with which the sprays are applied throughout the summer.

Another point in favor of fruit trees is the fact that they can be tailored to size.

Dwarf trees which may not reach over twelve feet can be used in even the smallest patio garden. Patio gradens can use the new dwarf peach Bonanza in tubs which can be moved to an unheated garage or basement in winter.

To determine the number of fruit trees that can be used in your yard allow ten to twelve feet between dwarf apple trees, fifteen to eighteen feet for dwarf pears and twenty to twenty-five feet for standard size fruit trees. The variety you select is very important. Based on actual observations it has been determined by the Horticulture Department at the University of Illinois that certain varieties of fruit trees are much better adapted to cold northern Illinois sites than others.

Apples, which should start bearing in four to seven years are divided into three groups.

Recommended summer varieties are Stark Earliest, Lodi, Red Melba, Early Blaze, Beacon and Red Jefferis.

Early fall varieties: Minjon, Red McIntosh, Cortland, Red Jonathan and Victory.

Fall: Golden Delicious, Secor, Connell Red and Spartan.

For the best fruit production set plant at least two varieties of both apples and pears. If recommended varieties are used pears will bear in four to six years.

Pear varieties of choice are Maxine, Seckel, Duchess and Flemish Beauty which is also called Parker.

Peaches are difficult to grow here. However, when one is successful, success comes early. Production starts in three or four years. However, only the very hardiest varieties will survive. Try in protected locations Polly, a white peach, Prairie Dawn or Sunapee.

If plums are considered, plant two or more varieties and expect fruit in four to six years. The best varieties for this area are Underwood, Superior, Dura, Sapa, Stanley, Reine Claude, and Shropshire, a Damson type.

Sour cherries will start to bear in four to five years. It is not necessary to plant more than one variety since sour cherries are self-pollinating. The best varieties are Early Montmorency, Morency, and the dwarf sour cherry, Meteor. The semi-sweet variety May Duke can be planted in this area as well as the bush cherry, Orient. Orient is of value because it requires only a limited amount of care.

Sweet cherries and apricots are not recommended for this area.

ROGER BOGIN will again serve as director of the Farm Camp of Community Center Foundation, Palos Park. The camp, for boys and girls, 8 thru 11, will open its 32nd season June 26. There will be four 2-week periods and the program includes horsemanship, archery, crafts and nature lore. The Foundation's Ranch camp for boys, 12 thru 15, will begin its fifth season June 19, with Donald McIntyre the director. Information on registration for both camps may be obtained at the Foundation office -- the telephone is 448-0780.

PMA Will Select Young Dairy Couple

Albert Krusemark of Frankfort, director of Pure Milk Association District 13, announced this week that competition for the 1966 title of outstanding young dairy couple of PMA is being developed by local units of this major dairy farmer cooperative.

Pure Milk Association has 18 districts in Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. District 13 is composed of dairy farmers from Boone, Cook, DeKalb, DuPage, Grundy, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall, LaSalle, Lee, Livingston and Will counties, Ill.

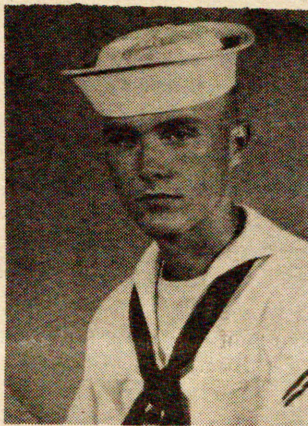

Last year Mr. and Mrs. James A. Schweppe, Rt. 4, Janesville, Wis., were selected as PMA's outstanding young dairy couple, and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Helms, Rt. 1, Baileyville, Ill., won the runnerup award.

Krusemark said the 1966 candidates selected by the locals will compete for their PMA district title, and the district winners will compete for the title of outstanding young dairy couple of the entire association.

Selection of the first and second-place winners in the entire association will be made from among the district winners who will take part in a judging contest in Chicago in August.

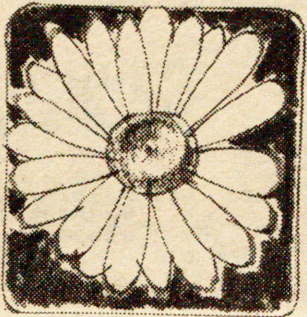

The No. 1 and No. 2 winners will represent Pure Milk Association at the annual convention of the National Milk Producers Federation late next fall in Washington, D. C.

The National Young Co-operators were organized by the Federation to build leadership among young people in dairy farming.

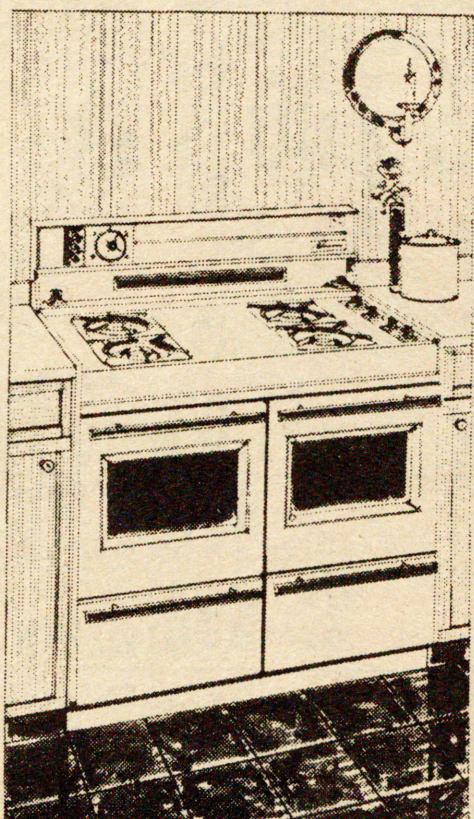

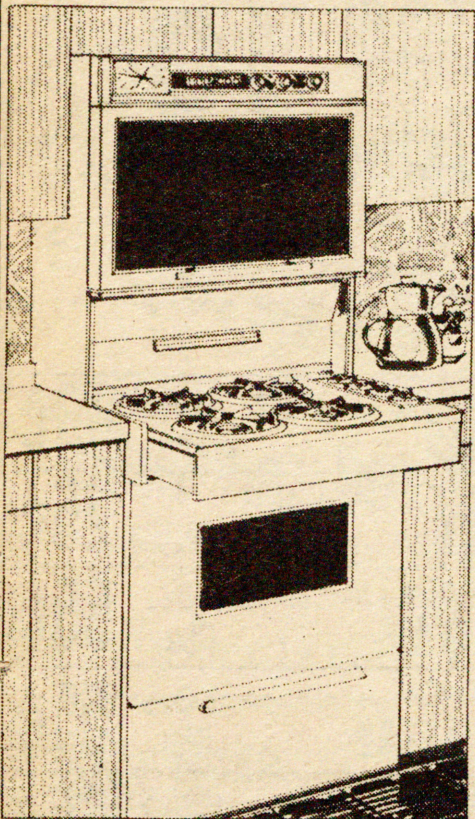

TERRY LOGAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Logan, Sauk Trail, Frankfort, is home on leave, after completing 23 weeks of Naval Communications training at Pensacola, Fla. After his two weeks leave, he will report in Japan, where he will be assigned for the duration of his enlistment. Logan is a graduate of Lincoln Way high school with the class of 1965.

Lombard Lilac Time To Draw Visitors

"You can't beat a combination of pretty girls and lilacs."

So states Dr. Jay Smith, chairman of the Lombard Lilac Festival, referring to the famous flowers and the "Queen" and princesses who welcome visitors to the famed Lilacia Park.

"Lilac Time in Lombard" will begin tomorrow (May 6) with the exciting floral displays of lilacs, tulips and pansies in Lilacia Park. The original opening date of April 30 was cancelled because continuing cool weather delayed the budding of the flowers.

Highlighting the Lilac Festival is the coronation of the "Queen of the Lilacs" on Friday, May 13, at 7:30 p.m., in Lilacia Park. The ceremony will include a band concert and various salutes to the queen and her court of four princesses.

The great Lombard Lilac Festival parade will take place on Sunday, May 15, at 3 p.m. Drum-and-bugle corps, marching bands, baton twirlers, clowns and horses will be among the thousands of participants.

In addition to riding on a special float in the parade, the queen and her four princesses will be strolling thru Lilacia Park during the week-ends to welcome visitors and to pose for camera fans.

As in the past years,

No formal musical training is necessary to become a Sweet Adeline. Women interested in such harmony singing may obtain additional information by calling the chapter president, Mrs. Donald Carlson, at 838-2519.

thousands are expected to visit the famed Lilacia Park, scene of the festival, on Mothers Day on May 8.

Garden lovers from throughout the Midwest are expected to converge on Lombard during the festival. Last year, Park District officials welcomed the 1,000,000th visitor to "Lilac Time."

According to a park district spokesman lilacs remain in bloom about two weeks.

Lincoln Estates A.C. Elects Two Officers

On April 20 the Lincoln Estates Athletic Club held its regular meeting at the Ann Rutledge School.

Six of the new members to receive their oath were Don Ball Sr., Jake Setter, Bob Rucker, Gus Santoro, Len Pearson, and Richard Smith.

There were seven new applications approved; J. C. Vaughn, Woody Zitter, Lawrence Nicholson, Paul Nicholson, Peter Rob, Lewellyn Rivord, and Benjamin Frankenberg Sr.

Bud Balsie reported that the club now has 26 members.

Bob Seamon reported on the dance being held on April 30, at the Frankfort Memorial Building.

Bill Frankenberg reported that the club lapel pins have been ordered. He also reported that the L.E.A.C. 16 inch softball team will definitely be playing in the Joliet League this summer.

Don Ball asked about the history and future plans of the L.E.A.C. Bill Frankenberg volunteered to write a resume for the next meeting.

Blanche Harms, the only woman officer in the club sent in her letter of resignation as treasurer. Clarence Harms also resigned as vice president. An election was then held to fill these two vacancies. Clarence Harms was elected treasurer and Don Ball was elected vice president.

Tom Vaughn appointed Richard Smith, Len Pearson and Gus Santoro to audit the books before they are turned over to the new treasurer.

The secretary read a letter of thanks received from the Lincoln Estates Little League for the donation the L.E.A.C. had made.

The next regular meeting will be held at the Ann Rutledge school at 8 p.m. on May 18.

Election Judges Will Find Training Pays

County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard has announced that the second session of her training course for judges of election will be held during April and May. This training is preparatory to the June 14, primary.

The county clerk is now required by law to hold a four-hour training course with a written examination for election judges. Judges of election who will have completed the entire four-hour course, and earned a passing grade on the written examination last November will receive a certificate of qualification. This entitles them to an additional $5 fee for the work on election day.

By properly schooling the judges, the election process functions smoothly and the task of tallying the votes is expedited, Mrs. Woodard said.

CLARA WOODARD

On Tuesday, April 26, a training course was held at the Green Garden town hall, for election judges from Green Garden, Frankfort, Will, Wilton, Manhattan, New Lenox, and Peotone townships.

Silver Cross Plans Baby Sitter Program

A fifth annual workshop for baby sitters will be held at Silver Cross Hospital on June 20, 21 and 22, it was announced this week by Mrs. Naomi Corsini, chairman of the program committee. Sponsored by the Will County Council of Service Organizations, the workshop programs are held in the auditorium of the student nurses residence entered from Copperfield avenue.

Applications for attendance have been mailed to all schools in the area sending sitters to the 1964 and 1965 workshops. These must be signed by a parent or guardian and returned to Mrs. Corsini by June 1. Applicants must have completed the seventh grade.

The capacity of the auditorium makes it necessary to restrict the attendance to 200. Programs covering responsibilities of sitters and parents of children they care for, safety and health with discussion periods are presented daily, from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Those attending must register at 1 p.m. each day and on the final day those who have attended all three programs will be given a certificate of attendance which carries a brief summary of the material presented. It is requested that only those who intend to come to each day send in applications.

The committee chairmaned by Mrs. Corsini consists of Miss Wilba Sandner, president of the council; Mrs. Florence Butler, home economics supervisor in the public school; Mrs. Edith Brown, district adviser, Girl Scouts; Mrs. Marianne Carnahan, Will County home adviser; and Miss Theresa Shier, Silver Cross.
